TIDY TOWNS REPORT

At the recent AGM of Clonaslee Tidy Towns there was a very poor turn out, after being bronze medal winners last year, there seems to be very little interest in bringing Clonaslee a step further. Chairman John Callaghan thanked all who worked last year, to our young people, Laois County Council Ger O'Mahony and staff, County Councillors, Caitriona Ryan and Fas employees for all their help. A special thanks to Pat Fenlon for daily litter picking and Patricia Costello for running a bonus ball each week for funds. Thanks to the Clonaslee community for all their support, Fr O'Reilly and Annette for publishing our reports. The chairman paid tribute to the secretary and treasurer for all they have done. Election of officers: Chairman: John Callaghan, Secretary: John Troy, Assistant Secretary: Maura O'Gorman; Treasurer: Chris Horan
