CLONASLEE COMMUNITY ALERT

Gardai appealed to all home owners to be extra vigilant of callers posing as plumbers, tradesmen, or selling items. When anyone calls to your house please use your peephole, always ensure your back door is locked. As you are talking to them at the front door, this may allow time for another to enter your house. Homeowners are asked to please close windows when leaving your house, leave on radio and always ask for photo ID. Those with monitor alarms please wear your panic button at all times when you press this button you have help instantly. Any problems you may experience with your alarm you can contact Teresa Moloney on 087-970-5651 and she will call to check your alarm. You should press your button often to make sure the alarm is working. Be vigilant, report any strange events to the Gardai on 057-864-8022 or 057-867-4100. Vote of sympathy was extended to all who lost loved ones recently.
