RETREAT

Special treat for parishioners and music lovers

On next Sunday week, March 1st the Tullamore Choir, who won the recent All Ireland Choral Festival in Belfast under the direction of Regina McCarthy, will perform during 10 am Mass. This is a real musical treat for everybody – so spread the word and come early to ensure your seat.

THANKS

On behalf of Fr Clear and Sr Bridie Hogan sincere thanks for your constant generosity and support. €930 was collected. It goes to Sr Bridie's school for the disabled that opened last year and Fr Clear helps the poor in a slum parish near his nursing home.

COMMUNITY ALERT

AGM on Monday 23rd Feb at 8:30 pm in the Community Centre. Be extra vigilant as a lot of unwanted people around the area such as vans and cars. Please report anything suspicious you see to 057-867-4100.

TIDY TOWNS

Meeting on Mon March 2nd to plan projects for 2015. A new three year plan needs to be done for entry in the National competition so a busy time for the secretary ahead. We welcome new ideas for the plans. We are getting very positive comments on Facebook but we also need more help. All ages welcome.

DINNER DANCE

Clonaslee United 25th Anniversary Dinner Dance is on Fri March 6th. Tickets cost €40 and available from Flynn's Post Office.

SCOIL BHRIDE NEWS

Pupils from Junior and Senior Infants enjoyed a great day at their Teddy Bears' Picnic held on Fri Feb 13th. Thank you to the local TY Students who gave an interesting presentation on Farm Safety to our 6th class this past week. We are delighted to help Fr. O'Reilly with preparations for a very special mass which takes place in the local church at 10:00am on Sun March 1st. Fr. O'Reilly has arranged for the much acclaimed Sacred Heart School Choir from Tullamore to perform at this event. We will be helping with stage, sound and refreshments in our School Hall. We hope to see a full church gathered for what promises to be a memorable musical celebration of the mass. Pupils from SBC attended Morning Mass on Ash Wednesday Many thanks to Fr. O'Reilly for bringing ashes back over to the school to all the classes that could not attend mass.

Diocesan Website: www.kandle.ie
