THANKS

Community Alert committee thank all who supported their church gate collection last weekend. Thanks to all the collectors and Dinny for his help. Total amount to be published later.

TIDY TOWNS

Judging for the Litter Challenge starts in May until July. We are appealing to all businesses and those living in and around the village to please sweep early. Please use bins in church yard for your cigarette butts. Last year Clonaslee lost out due to four butts and two pieces of litter. Judging for national competition starts from June 1. Our thanks to Laois County Council for collecting the many bags of litter that was collected during clean up week.
