ST MANMANS GAA NEWS

Last Friday, April 29 all roads led to Portlaoise where in O'Loughlin's Hotel the minor hurling finalist and the senior champions of 1975 had a reunion night. This turned out to be a great night with Eileen Dunne of television fame as our main guest. County Chairman Brian Allen who attended along with players from Clonad and many other clubs mixing and talking about old times on the hurling field. The club would like to thank Declan O'Loughlin who put such a big effort into making the night such a success. Also thanks to Jack Nolan and Pat Delaney who did great jobs as MC's for the night. Well done to all concerned.

FATHER & CHILD ACTIVITY DAY

Our father & child event this year is being held in Portlaoise Leisure

Centre. Activities will be organised by the GAA, Laois sports partnership and Dance and Music with Happy Hearts club. The event is open to fathers, stepfathers, uncles or other male guardians/carers. On Sat 14th May from 12-3 pm in Portlaoise Leisure Centre. Admission is free.
